Upcoming Events

October 25th
ACTs

October 27th
Admissions Reception at Phoenix Bookstore

October 29th
Documentary Film Series: DISRUPTION

October 31st
Halloween Green/Gray Competition

Vermont Commons Literati
Annual Halloween Story Writing Contest

The Vermont Commons Literati program has announced their annual Halloween Story Writing Contest! The contest rubric is as follows:

The first line must be,
"The first time it happened, it hardly seemed worthy of note....."

At least 300 words ~ turned in to Jennifer's office by October 29th.
Prizes for the first and second place winners!
Winners will be invited to read their stories (if they want to) at Morning Meeting on Halloween.

Parents, students, teachers, and administrators can submit stories.

Another Reminder About Upcoming Events

Earlier today, we sent out an e-mail outlining some important community events. Here are a few dates coming up next week to keep in mind:

Mon., 4:30pm: Admissions Reception at Phoenix Books

Wed., 2:30pm: Girls Volleyball Quarterfinals at the Edge

Wed., 6:00pm: The VCS Documentary Film Series presents DISRUPTION

Thu., 3:30pm: Boys Volleyball Quarterfinals at Burlington High School

Fri., all day: Halloween! Come dressed for the annual Green v Gray costume competition!

Some Photos from the Last Few Weeks

Pictured above: Cross Country runners Caleb Morehouse (left & right) and Caleb Oliveira, and a Common Hour presentation from Seth Lasker, Chief of the Burlington Fire Department (center).

Pictured above: Kent Vaccaro, Class of '20, in his championship kart. Congratulations again, Kent!

True Facts about the Flying Turtle

And now, a PSA from the Adirondack Canoeing Encounter Week

Narrated by our own Mark Cline Lucey.

Click here to watch, and enjoy!